I'm available for either today or tomorrow.

If it helps, I will redesign the system. This involves a =complete redesign of the switchgear and the addition of step up transformer=. With all of that said, you will be able to to the design as requested an= use the generators to back up both islands. Additionally, I believe you w=ll save some money.

I will, however, send you an addendum for this design because it is quite detailed and a significant amount of additional work.
