As you know we completed most of=our work on the legislative project for you (now the "Financial Se=vices Improvement Act of 2017") over six months ago. However= the bulk of our fees for this project (billed through Erika's fir=) have not yet been paid and we have been patiently waiting for that to ha=pen.

[REDACTED] tells me that this may have to d= with the fact that the Governor preferred to have the fees paid by his of=ice or by Peter Hiebert's firm. Exactly who cuts the check t= us is not that important to us, but since you are the client and you enga=ed us for this work, we have no choice but to look to you for payment.<=u>
