For my last job (all else is in place= do I put "SLK Design LLC" which links back to you when googled =nd I am linked to you separately...

or do I put something along the lines of "self employed - work on high-end residential projects in New York and Paris"

(SLK=Design used to lead to [REDACTED] website which was not good and a poor body of work - I currently cant find it so I dont know if she took it down )
