The deal you=proposed on Friday doesn't work for me. The asymmetrical risk I would face w=uld simply result in an overly conservative portfolio and a reluctance to i=plement positions when we get the best opportunities. I doubt you would wan= that either. Being exposed to some crazy event or flash crash that would v=id our deal is unreasonable. You know what I bring to the table and how muc= value I can add to your portfolios.

If the o=iginal deal doesn't work for you please let me know. I have some other opti=ns that I have put on hold that require a response.

Knowing my position on our deal do you still want me to call Rich an= Darren tomorrow?

Happy to discuss if you would li=e.
