the gifts to third parties are a refence to valeria=C2 AGAIN!!! . he should not be allowed to =slip away . and abdicate his past or present responsibilites.=C2 you need to send a strong response. . =C2 You are trustee and have been for many years. I be=ieve that trying to avoid fufilling those responsiblites by delay , and re=eated questions re gifts , which we have answered a numner of times=C2 is unacceptable. . there is over 2 million dollars in the trus=. so pretending that the concern is for my future , is clearly untrue. =A0 having the trust income payouts being less than 10k per yea= as you and harry have paid expenses to which i was never consulted is out=ageious ,

Thank you for your reply.=C2 As you indicate that you are not being represented by counsel I will=reply directly to you, with a copy to Rich (as you suggest). Please consider:

3. =A0 Given that my replacement i= impending, it might be worth waiting until my successor is in place before= responding to my requests for financial disclosure, as it's possible that my successor won't share my views as=to what the trustee of the trusts needs to know before making decisions about distributions. Likewise, if my successor will be identified soon =t might make sense for me to hold off on any distributions and leave it to the new trustee to work with you on figuring all of this out. In this regard I'm kind of a "lame duck" =rustee, wouldn't you say?

5. =A0 As for the specifics of disclosure, what I need to consider is (a) what your income was in 2017, since=that was the basis for the tax payments you seek to have reimbursed, (b) what your income is likely to be this year and= going forward, (c) what your expenses were in 2017 and are likely to be in 2018, and (d) whether any of your income (or other resources) are being used for purposes that the trust cannot support (such as gifts to third parties). So far, Rich has provided me with some rough information about your 2017 expenses. There=are some gaps in that information, but nothing that can't be cleared up pretty easily (I think). Rich has also assured me that you have not made any gifts that have diminished your resources and= I assume you would confirm that to me. What I don't have at this point is enough information about your income, so that I can consider what the gap is between your expenses and your=income, which is the gap the trusts might help to close up. With respect to your income in 2017, all I can see is that your income tax obligations seem to be much higher than they were previously. I'm assuming that reflects a jump in income from (i)=the profit made on the sale of the condominium, and (ii) large withdrawals=from your IRA. If you want to provide me with more information (bearing in mind what I noted in item #3, above) then information about your 2017 income and what your income is likely to be this year is what I most need.

I hope this is helpful and= will wait to hear more from you and/or Rich.

Thanks for your message a=d your inquiry. I would like to reply in some detail, but before I d= so please tell me whether you are now represented by legal counsel. =f you are then I believe I'm obliged to copy your counsel on our e=changes. I would also plan on copying Rich Kahn, since my last commu=ications about distributions to you from the trusts have been with him.

Please also bear in mind =hat since (according to Rich) you are preparing to bring a legal action against me, I have been in contact with my firm's malpractice insu=ance carrier. As my exchanges with you may also need to be reviewed =ith our carrier that may delay (and/or limit) my responses.<=>

I presume it is clear that the recent proposal transmitted by Harry's lawyer that I should be satisfied with a handout of 100k a year from the Marital Trust is too disgraceful for comment. I would like to know what further information you require for reimbursement for tax payment. We have previously transmitted a great deal of financial information in order for you to reimburse our taxes, including proof of payment and more. Exactly what more do you require, and with what justification? We see little reason that you cannot act on the information already provided. As for the claim about concern for my later years, that has been thoroughly refuted.
