I've spoken to Juleanna Glover about you. She's Elon Musk's DC-based PR person. She's captive to him, so not hireable. But she's exceedingly smart and well connected and has interesting things to say. She can offer an extremely informed overview on how to think about larger steps. Not so much about the trial per se, but going forward. Anyway, she is in NYC on Thursday with some time if you wanted me to arrange a meeting. m
