Rich

I have just been informed by Chris
ABC have some of our plant material at their nursery and we need to send F450 for pickup !!
Yesterday I had to bring him back to the island after he left on the barge just before noon
His explanation was he needed to sort out his apartment and need all the plant material on site before starting work

I also asked him yesterday to confirm small plant material count, I have not received count back as of late !!
I have informed him to have done by 12 noon today and pass on to [REDACTED]

This is ridiculous =br class="">
