I want to help improve Christie's terms for your Giacometti. As I was not involved with the initial deal Christie's presented, I wish to be given the opportunity to come back to you with a better offer.

Thank you for asking Rich to contact me when you initially decided to sell your Giacometti with Christie's. I will be transparent in sharing that your decision not to sell with us and not give us the opportunity to counter has now put me in a very difficult position. I understand it is a higher guarantee than what Christie's previously presented so I understand why you kept the door open for them. I would appreciate the same consideration.

Thus far, what I have been directly involved in on your behalf, I deliver. You asked for a guarantee on the Braque and I got one and believe we will sell well for you on May 15. If you want one for the Giacometti, I would like the opportunity to try to secure one, this week, that meets your approval and if we cannot then they win fair and square. Thank you again for your consideration.

With best wishes,
