Hi =ich,

Sotheby's just came back to us and said they cann=t raise the guarantee or the enhanced hammer any higher, so their offer st=nds at a guarantee of $18.75 million and an enhanced hammer of 108% with t=e overage split 80/20. Leon is planning to call Amy himself in the morning and tell her that she can have the Giac=metti if she comes up to 110% on the enhanced hammer. I'm no= sure if she will be able to go up to 110%, but he wants to try one last t=me.

Christie's, as you know, is at an enhanced hammer of 110% with overage split 80/20, stepping down to 107% once the proceeds to Jeffrey reach GBP 20 million. (Their guarantee was through a third party guarantor and was capped at $15-16 million.)

=p class="MsoNormal">>In the meantime, Leon thinks having a separate catalogue for the Giacometti is an important marketing tool (for what it's worth, I agree with him), so he wants to know if Christie's will give the Giacometti both the back cover of the main Evening Sale catalogue (as they had previously agreed to do) and a separate catalogue just for the Giacometti. Will you please find out from Sharon?

Leon says a decision will be made tomorrow morning. As usual, I'm assuming that he's talking to Jeffrey about all of this, but I want to make sure you're in the loop simultaneously just in case there are questions.
