I did not make up an answer. Danny V and I discussed the pool project at 7am this morning.

You never gave this a chance. For 3 weeks I've had nothing but negative feedback and no communication.

Not the Jeffrey Epstein I remember from earlier.

a simple "I don't know" would have been the right answer. a simple call to find out, would have helped, but you decided to make up an answer, I did not see the pool electric on the punch list. ? = sorry it didn't work. yes- it best that you leave <=r>

With all due respect. I was asked to come here to sort out the staffing, not to be an island manager. Anna is in charge of the outside crew and I've created a position that works for her.

No, I don't know what every person on the island is doing at all times. If I were to oversee every single person= I would not get anything else done.

I get it. You are not happy with my performance and I can accept that and will pack my bags. But, I never signed up to be an island manager. You asked me to come sort out the situation with Brice, Karen and Anna and staffing in general.

<=div>

I found a couple of like, split up Anna and Karen so they can co-exist and gave them realistic=areas of responsibility.

On top of that, I've been keeping an eye on both Karen and Anna's areas of responsibility and helped out where needed. Including spending all my day Saturday cleaning beaches and plucking weeds, rearranging stones for your arrival.

I've never once had a chance to sit down to define my role with you. I was asked to come to do one thing and then is expected to do something entirely different.

Sincerely

John
