Tropical storm Alberto which is located N/E of Cuba, should move north, which should reduce the Rain in Palm beach by Tuesday.

Tomorrow / Sunday, Rain showers all day, Very isolated Thunderstorm activity, mostly rain, with Cloud tops at 20,000' only.

We should be OK with our arrival back to PBI if that is still the plan?

Just confirming who will travel back to PBI with you?

And Confirming PreClearance in St. Thomas?

Thx
Larry
