Dear Jeffrey

If I propose something to you ,it is to have your opinion =n it because you are the owner who will leave with the objects and =urniture, and if you do not like I respect of course your =pinion.

But (there is a but) you must buy what I =ill find without any sort of degree of importance for the decor , you =r we must buy when we find nice things ,or at the end we will still =ave a nice envelopp but nothing in it and it will allways look empty =nd unfinished.

Yes we will get rid of the posters but for the moment I =ave no good idea , but I found these scultures , and are nice ,for =e.

I must feel free to buy things for you ,when I feel it is =art of your « privacy » I will ask your agreement =f course ,for me you will spent about 2 millions , to really change the =ouse and atmosphere , but why do you need some time (I just want to =nderstand a little bit what you have in the brain concerning houses =nly !)

Alberto ,our dear friend would have signed this mail for =e , my only goal is to give you satisfaction at the end ,if I =ork on your house or do not ,it will change nothing in my bank acount , = am just passionated that's all. But we cannot wait if we find =n ashtray or a red plexiglass sofa.

Sorry to shake you ,but for me you need to accept the =antasy...

With my regards and affection

j

Dear =effrey

Everything seem to go well for the Dining Room

I will =o to NY the 11th of April until the 13th,day of the end...

I saw =hese scultures in resine from a lady artist with these 5 tall men, 8' =igh
In the Staircase Hall ,and may be in the staircase ,they could =e very nice (for me !)
They ask 45.000 € for the 5
What =o you think ?

Thank you

j
