Jeffrey:

Hope you had a good Passover/Easter Holiday Weekend.=o:p>

Quick FYI - Ackley has still yet to provide any Real=Financials (Revenues vs. Liabilities) on his Radio Station businesses. Fra=kly I am not sure if he knows what he is doing, or if at this point in tim= and he just wants to be elusive, regardless, until he provides the requisite information, we currently cons=der the Venture - On Hold!! (and I have made that known)

More importantly, I am writing to you about our foll=w up to getting together and discussing the other topic(s), that I mention=d to you, were better talked about together in person.

I'm just dropping this quick note post-holiday=weekend because, yours, is obviously the more important schedule to coordi=ate around. I am going to be stateside for the rest of this month and as I=mentioned in a previous email don't have a problem flying to see you for a day, depending on where you are. I also =on't plan to be back in the USVI until the 1st or 2n= Week of May.

Anyway, let me know what you think works for you and=I can make plans to shoot over to see you to quickly review things and dis=uss the best, next steps.

Talk soon,

McGee
