Understood.

If aft divan will always be open to create a bed, then we can create a sophisticated cabin. Would love to install stylish lamps on the new low cabinets fwd of the mid cabin divans. Divans should be designed more like love seats in a home vs "aircraft divans".

If not, 2 divans on LH side by side will look awkward.

Best regards,

Eric

Can you please mark up this floor plan of the main cabin area as you envision it?
