They have replied and got the date wrong – should be 21 March for a decision. Letter below.

Have started the study, many thanks.

Dear Dr =enwick,<=p>

I =rite further to your letter to the College's Professor Simon =cVeigh, dated 13 February 2017. I apologise that this correspondence =as taken some time to reach you and for the inconvenience and =ncertainty that this may have caused.

The =ollege's Ethical Committee to Consider the Acceptance of Gifts is =cheduled to convene a meeting on 21 February 2017. On that occasion, =he Committee will consider the offer made by the Enhanced Education =rust to contribute funding to work being done by yourself and Professor =oydeep Bhattacharya.

It is =ecognised that it would be preferable to be able to accept or decline =he aforementioned offer at the earliest possible occasion. To that end, =fforts have been made to convene the Committee's meeting on an =earlier date. Unfortunately, however, these have not been successful. I =eeply regret the frustration that will undoubtedly be caused by the =delayed decision making process in this matter. I hope, however, you =ill understand that the College must follow appropriate and rigorous =rocesses.

I will =evert to you following the meeting of the Committee detailed =bove.

Yours sincerely,

Matthew =rooks

Head of Secretariat and Legal =ervices
