[dropping Chris and Nicole to bcc and adding my colleagues Kevin, Elena, and Stacy to the thread]

Amir: Nice to virtually meet you! I'd love to learn more about Carbyne. One of my Partners, Kevin Hartz, and I have spent quite a bit of time talking about next-gen 911, so this is super interesting to us. Elena and Stacy can help coordinate on our end.

Looking forward to it!

Cheers,

Trae'

Dear Trae,

Nice to E-meet you. (Chris, thanks for that intro).

As shortly described, Carbyne <<https://app-frankfurt.salesforceiq.com/r?target=5b02dc27c9e77c007d7637e8&t=ABb3-AeqPdBT1wFL-yLp85O7zD2-aj27nv4-hiXm1Em7V19L4tXXKx2WNcFSWoLwPercbDh3D4AgNEeLxO-CaxDzj8H1bpa1SLMQpX1Sa9M7KM6S0PA71Z2KqzArzYB8y4rtnrIXKzNV>> , A U.S./IL company developed an Eco-system that disrupted the way we all thinking about Real-time emergency communication. Supported by worldwide leaders, Investors, and partners. Carbyne, presented a Global IP grid that enables any GOV/City/Enterprise to engage with their people via Rich Data package with a Carrier-grade SLA (No app is needed and No integration is needed - Plug and Play) - Worldwide.

Dear Amir,

I hope all is well and you got back to Israel safely last week.

As we discussed, Nicole and I thought that Trae Stephens at Founders Fund would be a good person for you to discuss Carbyne's progress to date with, and the challenges that you face in building a business that is primarily focussed on Governments and the wider public sector.

Given Trae's background at Palantir, we figured there would be a fair amount of serendipity.

Dear Trae – as mentioned, Amir is the founder and CEO of Carbyne, who have developed a software layer for the emergency services' 911 operations to have a much broader picture of emergencies when incidents happen. They are building traction across a number of continents and have a strong pipeline.

We think you will enjoy getting to know each other.

Over to you both but please let us know if we can be of help in the meantime.

Best,

Chris
