Hi Lesley,

Just a quick quest=on regarding GSJ, do you or Jeffrey know whether when there is an hurrican= how protected the main beach is? I saw on maps there is two corals reef t=at might break swell and protect the beach, but I was wondering whether yo= already saw that situation? That will help me roughly to think about a re=istant green bushes barrier that resit to sea water and get an idea of how=far the sea could get into land...

Th=nk you.

Kevin.
