Rich,

It has shipped and is travel by air to their store and then from there it will transported to Tropical Shipping. He can't provide me with tracking number until they receive and sorted out the different orders at there store and then he will provide me with a tracking number when it is in transit to the forwarder freight company Tropical Shipping. I will be checking daily and giving status updates on this shipment.

Regards,

Lucas

not sure what that means has it shipped from France? if so tracking number? if not when will it ship and please obtain a tracking number is it shipping directly to STT?

danny once received please advise what needs to be done so have generator working again is this work you will do?

any other supplies or materials needed?
