> A tourist walked into a Chinese > curio shop in San Francisco . While looking around at the > exotic merchandise, he noticed a very lifelike, life-sized, > bronze statue of a rat. It had no price tag, but was so > incredibly striking the tourist > decided he must have it. He took it to the old shop owner > and asked, "How much for the bronze > rat?"

> "Ahhh, you have chosen wisely! It is $12 > for the rat and $100 for the story," said the wise old > man.
> The tourist quickly pulled out twelve dollars. "I'll > just take the rat, you can keep the story".
> As he walked down the street carrying his bronze rat, the > tourist noticed that a few real rats had crawled out of the > alleys and sewers and had begun following him down the > street. This was a bit disconcerting so he began walking > faster.
> A couple blocks later he looked behind him and saw to his
