Jeffrey,

It's been a while since I last touched base,=but Brad informed us today that Leon will be engaging EY to review his 201= returns. I know that EY will do a great job serving Leon, his family and =lysium. I also know you played an important role in bringing this opportunity to EY and to help get it across the fini=h line and, therefore, wanted to express my appreciation and s=y thanks again for your help.

On a personal note, I'm beginning my search =or the next chapter in my career post EY's mandatory partner retire=ment. In your dealings with other family offices, if you become aware of p=tential opportunities, please let me know or feel free to pass along my contact information (post 6/30 to my personal email =a href=[REDACTED] " target="_blank">[REDACTED] My preference is to remain in Chicago, but I=E2 d consider relocating for the right opportunity.

Best regards, Jeff </=>
