Larry,

Thanks for confirmation of the schedule.

The 144 month inspections are not due for roughly 2=years. That is not something that we will approve.

If there are some inspections coming due in the 90 =ays or 100 hours after the anticipated closing date (we have to deliver the aircraft current on its maintenance as of the closing date) that you want to propose adding to your prebuy inspection that you pay to inspect Chevron will consider allowing those to be done as part of your prebuy. That is common and customary, but looking out beyond that short term is not. Please do get us your complete prebuy proposal ASAP to review. Once it is agreed upon it will be the definitive complete inspection that will be done as part of this transaction. Thanks. Josh

Hello Josh.,

Your schedule for March 3, 4 and 6th works for us fi=e,, thank you for accommodating.

I'd like to include some 144month items during o=r premium package gulfstream prebuy.,

Below emergency exist window inspection,, under head=iner inspect,, nothing earth shattering,. Could you get Chevron's=approval for Gulfstream to quote me the 144month items i'd like it tak=n care of during my pre-buy?

Thx

Larry

Josh,

I have been more than reasonable. Makes little sense=to dictate test flight dates.

Thx

Larry,

Chevron can't do it Monday. They will need to ge= the contract countersigned Monday before leaving Tuesday. Please look at =our schedule and try to change it. We really need to stick with the moveme=t on Tuesday and a test flight Tuesday or Wednesday. Thanks. Send me the work scope proposal as soon as you can t=o. Josh

Larry, That really kills an entire week when we coul= be starting the inspections. It would be best to really stay with t=e schedule that Chevron is planning for....moving the plane on Tuesday and=getting started.

I still need to know if you've contacted Gulfstr=am Westfield and if they are ready for us and we need to see your prebuy=work scope in its final complete form. Thanks. Josh
