It appears windows will arrive in Miami early next week then they need 1 week to pickup and review prior to installation. Estimated installation time is 2-3 weeks and it appears they can begin install as early as Feb 27th if ok with your schedule.

Good Morning, Per our conversation we are told the windows and doors are at sea and should arrive to port approximately within a week at that time we will make the arrangements to pick up and review all that has shipped.

We will be contacting you at that time to make arrangements.

Please call or reply with any questions or concerns.

Kind Regards,
