Brad, we will work on the language first thing tomorrow morning. I suggest the language below.

sorry I missed your call, been in meetings.

I recommend the following (in line with your suggested change, but more complete)....

This amended return is being filed solely for the purpose of filing delinquent international information returns pursuant to the Program for Voluntary Disclosure of Delinquent International Information Returns. There is no change to the amount of taxable income or amount of tax as reported on original form 1040. Please see attached Statement of Reasonable Cause.

Consistent with the message I just left on your phone could we use the following language on p.2 of the 1040's:
"This return is being filed solely to provide information pursuant to the Voluntary Program for Filing Delinquent International Information Returns.

No additional tax is owed or due."

Once this change has been made, please email to melanie, copying jeffrey, barry and me (pw protected). We will get signed returns back to you asap. Let's also cancel my 11am visit to your office for the final review. Likely I'll do in the afternoon. (Jeffrey, pls edit if you want changes.) Thx, b
