The government has not shown that the executive order provides wh=t due process requires, such as notice and a hearing prior to restricting a= individual's ability to travel. ... The procedural protections pro=ided by the Fifth Amendment's due process clause are not limited to=citizens. Rather, they "appl[y] to all 'persons' wi=hin the United States, including aliens," regardless of "wh=ther their presence here is lawful, unlawful, temporary, or permanent.◆=9D ... These rights also apply to certain aliens attempting to re-enter the=United States after traveling abroad.
