Chevron

Jeffrey

When I spoke to Chevron's director of aviation, he informs they take their first of Four G650 deliveries Oct of 2017,, Chevron's board may elect to down size the flight department from four aircr=ft to three, and cancel the 4th G650 delivery . All of their G550's have the exact same floor plan and similar hours, the newest being a 2012., They are trying to stagger their 650 deliveries a year apart, so they do not=all come due inspections at the same time,, The next delivery (2nd G650) expect mid 2018,.

Thx
Larry
