Subject: LSJ next week?

Good morning Jeffrey,

I'm flying back to Palm Beach today and have all of next week open. If you are interested, I can go to LSJ for 4 or 5 days starting Monday and:

Implement all the new checklists. Spend a day with each department and make sure they know how to work the checklist and how to fill them out

Do a complete evening walk through with Danny V and Danny E to mark all lights that needs work, adjust timers and show them the areas where they need to=perform better

Go over all tech with Jermaine, check speakers and systems

Give Marine department much needed instructions in how to do log books for m= statistics

Make sure housekeeping is still using the techniques Dwight implemented

Follow up on open punch lists and check current island status

Thanks

John
