Jeff=ey, how are you?

I hate it when w= argue and I feel really sad that I've disappointed you. I wanted to t=ll you that I have thought about what you told me and I realize that you a=e right. You have always been very helpful and you always have been a supp=rt for me, financially but above all emotionally. You told me I was not he=pful for you and I want to repair this since I care and you have always be=n there for me. You are the most important person in my life and I would l=ke to do something for you. How can I help? How can I make you happy ? I k=ow you think I am not serious but I am trying my best to find my way throu=h life... I'm really enjoying my internship so far and I hope it will =urn into a job and that one day I will be able to be independent. I'm =rying my best everyday to be serious at work. I would also like to apologi=e for the things I said to you and for making you lose your patience. Sorr=. I know I need to learn to balance my emotions.

I don'=t want to talk anymore about past events... However, I want you to know th=t I am still suffering for what I did and the regret is killing me everyda= because I am aware that our special relationship that we first had will n=ver be the same. This is what morally and emotionally affects me the most.=I really hope that one day I will grow and hopefully make you proud. Love =ou. [REDACTED]
