Dear Jeffery=span>

Thank you so=much for your reply to our request.

In order for=us to have a deeper conversation in this reply to your email, I have asked a friend of mine to help translate.

[REDACTED]

Before talki=g business again, I wanted you to know that the connection and respect that I have with you is very important to =e, and I hold our friendship as one of the most important in my life. With=that being said, I never want ANY business conversations to change in any =ay the friendship that we share. I know we do not speak often however you are always in my gratitude's an= prayers.

So if you wo=ld prefer that we do not discuss this proposal any further, please let me know and I will not take any more of your time =nd hopefully keep in tact our friendship. If however you are open to looki=g at this opportunity and possibly helping us, then I want to thank you in=advance for your time.

I will now s=are a little more detail in response to you text:

My husband h=s been running events in Lithuania for the past 7 years and has enjoyed great success and of course has also expe=ienced events that were not successful at all. The important t=ing now is that with his 7 years of event experience and deep unders=anding of the nuances and distinctions that create a successful event he really feels ready to move our business to the next =evel.

We are certa=n that with the right event that we can truly develop a self-funding, sustainable and long-term successful event p=atform where no future funds are needed. Please remember that we will cont=nue to run events in Lithuania as we are building the events in Switzerlan=.

Because the =argins in this business are moderate, borrowing the initial start up investment at a premium interest rate from an institu=ion or bank is quite challenging and creates a major dilemma for us. With =hat in mind, we are looking for someone who is willing to help us with the=initial investment and not expect the normal ROI that most sophisticated investments would return, and someo=e who can trust that we will not let them down and return their capital wi=h a modest return.

I understand=that this is a BIG ask and I had to really check into my heart to decide if this was something I was confortable with=asking you to invest in. I believe in my husband and his experience, I kno= that we will be successful as we have been for nearly decade now and I kn=w that moving our business to 'A' list stars while expensive can generate immediate and strong cash flow.

If you are o=en to invest with us and help us get started we can explore different scenarios, maybe for example, you only invest the=first four events and we will then create the cash flow to fund all =uture events and create a payment plan for you that takes into account the=lower profit margins of this type of business. We are open to explore all possibilities and remain open to your=suggestions.

Thank you again for even considering this and please understand that our friendship means more to me than anything, so if you decline this request, we totally understand.

Lastly, my husband speaks great English so maybe we could set up a call if you have questions or wish to understand more.

Thank you again for your belief in the arts and for helping people like me get a start in life.

With much love and respect
