Jeffrey,

I wanted to send you this idea prior to the end of the week because I see P=D is in final stages of refurb.

I think you'd benefit from the locals knowing that you have security st=ff.

Have PRD painted as security boat. Put "Saint James Islands SECURITY&q=ot; in large letters on the hull, and maybe a few hull stripes that resemb=es a police or patrol boat.

Put a police light bar in top. Green color is legal on civilian boats and a=strong searchlight.

While I don't think you'd want to pay for full time security office=s, a daily or twice daily trip around GSJ with a slow cruise through Chris=mas Cove will quickly spread the word that the island is being monitored b= security. And occasional night round with searchlight would reinforce tha= as well.

PRD can still be used as prior, but now serves as a deterrent for crashing =he island.

Btw I can send you a few design suggestions in Photoshop if you like the id=a. I have available time at nights here
