I have today contacted Goldsmith's college and found them and their switchboard to be closed until Jan 4th.

I assume that there may be a time constraint and you need to complete this by the end of the year, if this is so then I have arranged the following alternative.

=p class="MsoNormal">

I contacted the Chair of the Scientific and Medical Network, which is primarily an educational charity with an interest in this area, of which I am President, (<https://explore.scimago.net.org/>), and asked the chair if the Board would accept the grant given to us. The grant would of course stay under my direction, and then used to fund a research institute which carries out hyperscanning, with the recommendation that this is Goldsmith's college. =A0

The Chair agreed as he saw the potential of mutual interest and dissemination of results, so should this course of action be agreeable to you, the bank and network account number are given below. However, if you would prefer to wait till Goldsmith's college re-opens then I will get their details and the name of their finance officer for you. =/u>

=u>

From my side either alternative is satisfactory.

Best.

Peter
