But let's put that aside too, and just re=olve the matter, as can be done very simply -- with no need for lawyers to=explain the fiduciary responsibility of the trustee I appointed years ago =o replace me, something I never paid any attention to before.

The simple solution is to divide the trust into two parts. On= part will go to you, to use as you wish. One part will go to me, fo= me to use without any investigations of my financial situation and other =uch intrusions that I won't accept. Then the trust can simply be=dissolved, and it is all over.
