Jeffrey,

We will need to move the =oat out of your office in order for the new carpet to be laid. It wa= moved away from the wall so that the painters could paint behind it. = When it was moved, it was clear that the table it sits on is not that stu=dy. Can we choose a sturdier surface and one that is slightly lower =o that the masts don't touch the ceiling?

The painting is basically done.&nbs=; I will have them come back to paint behind some of the desks that were t=o heavy to be moved and which need to be moved for the new carpet. I=have secured space next door to be used to house our furniture while the c=rpert is being put down.

With warm regards,
