Dear Jeffery=span>

Thank you so=much for your reply to our request.

In order for=us to have a deeper conversation in this reply to your email, I have asked a friend of mine to help translate.

Firstly, I w=nted to tell you how much your belief in me changed my life, and how the investment you made into my studies and career has meant to me, my family,=my husband, our son and the audiences that I am blessed to serve. So thank=you again from the bottom of my heart.

Before talki=g business again, I wanted you to know that the connection and respect tha= I have with you is very important to me, and I hold our friendship as one =f the most important in my life. With that being said, I never want ANY bu=iness conversations to change in any way the friendship that we share. I k=ow we do not speak often however you are always in my gratitude's and prayers. <=p>

So if you wo=ld prefer that we do not discuss this proposal any further, please let me know and I will not take any more of your time and hopefully keep in tact =ur friendship. If however you are open to looking at this opportunity and =possibly helping us, then I want to thank you in advance for your time.

I will now s=are a little more detail in response to you text:

My husband h=s been running events in Lithuania for the past 7 years and has enjoyed great success and of course has also experienced events that were not =A0successful at all. The important thing now is that with his 7 =A0years of event experience and deep understanding of the nuances and dist=ncions that create a successful event he really feels ready to move our business to the next level.

We are certa=n that with the right event that we can truly develop a self-funding, sust=ivable and long-term successful event platform where no future funds are needed. =lease remember that we will continue to run events in Lithuania as we are =uilding the events in Switzerland.

Because the =argins in this business are moderate, borrowing the initial start up inves=ment at a premium interest rate from an institution or bank is quite challengin= and creates a major dilemma for us. With that in mind, we are looking for=someone who is willing to help us with the initial investment and not expe=t the normal ROI that most sophisticated investments would return, and someone who can trust that we will not let t=em down and return their capital with a modest return.

I understand=that this is a BIG ask and I had to really check into my heart to decide if this was something I was confortable with asking you to invest in. I be=ieve in my husband and his experience, I know that we will be successful a= we have been for nearly decade now and I know that moving our business to='A' list stars while expensive can generate immediate and strong cash flow.

If you are o=en to invest with us and help us get started we can explore different scen=rios, maybe for example, you only invest the first four events and we will=then create the cash flow to fund all future events and create a payment p=an for you that takes into account the lower profit margins of this type o= business. We are open to explore all possibilities and remain open to your suggestions.

Thank you ag=in for even considering this and please understand that our friendship mea=s more to me than anything, so if you decline this request, we totally under=tand.

Lastly, my h=sband speaks great English so maybe we could set up a call if you have que=tions or wish to understand more.

T=ank you again for your belief in the arts and for helping people like me get a start in life.

With much lo=e and respect
