Subject: Re: Good article on rentech

Btw an interesting thing here is that everyone keeps claiming that rentech has more computational power than anyone=else, this is not true.

From what I've been told, the number=of machines they have can be rented easily on amazon or something similar.&=bsp;

The real advantage they have is that they write all code in an extrem=ly optimized flavor of C++ so it is much faster than most other hedge funds=code
