Thanks Larry

I think it wo=ld be helpful if you spoke with Husham, he can perhaps give you m=re info about the capabilities of Etihad Engineering.

I'm pretty sure they are familiar with BBJ, in fact Comlux=sent their B767BBJ for a big check and refurbishment in 2013.

Thought I would send you my response via email,</=pan>

We have been informed that though the etihad facility is an =pproved MAINTENANCE facility , they are unaccustomed to BBJ, which are a h=brid. for example, the B737 do not have HUD, but there a=e other components as well. We can send a team to boroscope the engines on=sight in abu dhabi if that helps?
