the gov and I have spoken about dpnr, ◆=A0 i told him that i was at my wits end , being given rules , =hat jp makes up, ie not being able to land m= helo as it is a protected cay, then a marine reserve◆=A0 , then a rookery. . i told him yest=rday about the picnit tables and that drove him over the edge.◆=A0 i would like to have this resloved =ith as little problems as possible. They have cleary forgotten=C2◆ that their interpretation is bound by the fact that it must be in th= public interest. . they cant say that addin a layer of =tone , is a modification , and that they are concerned that i plant trees.=C2◆ so that i might leave less than 40 percent untouched.

Jeffrey,

=p class="MsoNormal">

I was going to say =ou didn't call the Governor to set up the meeting. He followed the=issue in the media and reached out to you. That's how I understood=it when we spoke on the island, but I wasn't a 100% sure. If that =s the case, it might beneficial if the Governor states that at the beginni=g of the meeting so these guys don't think you are running to him =every time you have a problem with them. Additionally, I think we maneuvere= them into stating we could ask the Commissioner to reconsider the 45 feet=height restriction on the flagpole, particularly since the permit hasn◆=80◆t been fully executed as yet. It is clear to me the section reference= to limit the height appears to refer to attachments on a building than a =reestanding pole. Hopefully the Commissioner can prevail with that. If not= go to Land Use & Appeals.
