Hi Jef=rey, I just had a long talk with [REDACTED]. She gave me many suggestions and she told me she wants to help me. So she told me that the headshot and show reel are the most important things to have and that it doesn't mater if it is not from a real movie. Agents and casting di=ectors wants to have some material to look at. Also she mention that I should buil= website with my work and pictures in order to advertise myself.

She al=o told me that it will be nice if in my show reel I can show that I can act also in Italian and French, the more skill the better. And s=e said that I should look to cast for student movie so I will have more mater=al to show. Basically she told me that the industry is very fast and also if someone is interested but you have nothing to show they go on. Another thin= she told me is to show contrasting part like something more dramatic and something comic to show I can play both.

She al=o told me that she is going to cast for the next movie in February so if I send her some pictures and some material she will have a l=ok.

Anothe= thing she said is that is very important to stay trained, to take class regularly.
