Richard,

Please find attached the Q3 2015 reporting. In response to your question, AYH recently signed a term sheet with Banco Popular that provided the following two options:

Option 1

2 year extension with an interest rate of 2.83%

Option 2

7 year extension with a fixed interest rate of 4.95%.

Option 1 does not require an appraisal. Option 2 requires an appraisal showing a TV Ratio of 75%. Both options would require amortization of $33,000 per month. IGY is in favor of option 2 and the lender has commissioned an appraisal which should be completed before Christmas. If that happens it is our hope to close the loan shortly after the new year.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Yours,

Mark Lande
