I hope the clouds do lift next week. There were n= interesting opportunities to close out positions today so I delta hedge t=e AUD position. to stay safe over the weekend. Let's hope that the =istorically low showing in the polls with inspire the republicans to negot=tiate quickly a resolution to both problems. Interesting to see how com=odities (i.e. "assets sales") were under pressure today.

No real change in the position.

Be well= Enjoy your weekend,

Laurie
