9 Jan

Most guests are checking out and =eparting for home or their next =estinations.

Accommodation

We are =oping that most of our guests will arrive on the 5th and leave on =he 9th, and have reserved enough rooms at the Disney Yacht Club =esort (standard room) to accommodate everyone for this =eriod.

As you know, we are happy to offer to cover 4 nights of hotel for the bulk of our guests, plus a day pass to Disneyworld so that we can all have a great time enjoying the park and meeting for meals and catching up in addition to the ceremony and associated events on the 7th. The Disney staff are aware that standard rooms for 5-9 will be direct billed to our master account unless people expressly request otherwise to us, and that all other charges for meals, extra days etc will be billed to the individual.

We will complete the room bookings for you once we have information from you about arrival times, room requirements, etc (those questions are below).

Transport

Airport transfers - Walt Disney World offers a complimentary shuttle and luggage delivery service to and from the Orlando International Airport. You can book Disney's Magical Express reservations by calling (407) 827-6777 with flight information after your hotel reservations are complete.

Around the parks – Bring your walking shoes! The parks are big and comfy shoes will carry you wherever the internal boat and train systems don't. We also have info about motorized chairs, which sound like a lot of fun and relief for those who can't or don't want to do as much walking. We are assuming at least some of honor will like that option. Anyone else?

The Parks

We will also purchase bulk Disneyworld tickets sometime in December after everyone's plans are finalised. In the meantime, browse around at <https://disneyworld.disney.go.com/> to familiarize yourself with the area and get some ideas about how you'd like to spend your time.

The guests

We are expecting a group of about 35 for most of the days above. They come from Australia, USA, Canada, England and each boasts an extremely fascinating life. We hope you'll thoroughly enjoy the opportunity to meet and spend time with some new friends in the bizarrely fun setting. We invited you because we think you will!

To encourage a bit of mingling, we will send out a guest list with a photo and a few introductory lines about each guest in order to make it easier to spot and remember new people.

Evening gatherings

We have some group reservations at various Epcot restaurants for the evenings of the 5th, 6th and 8th to accommodate as many of our guests who want to meet up and have dinner with us those evenings. It will provide nice opportunities to share and review the various adventures of the day and make some plans for more. We're somewhat limited in the size of the party for various restaurants but will work around people's interests, so please let us know if you'd like to join in (specific Qs below).

Questions for you =96

1. When are you arriving and departing Orlando? – We'll use this info to hold room bookings unless you let us know you're staying elsewhere.
2. Room requirements – (number and names for each person in each room, two beds or one, home address and phone number, email contact)
3. Food requirements – Anything we should know about? We'll use this information to finalise catering arrangements and make good choices for evening meal reservations
4. Transport – coaches and motorized chairs are available, so please let us know if you're depending on those so we can be sure appropriate arrangements are made.
5. First impressions – please send a photo and a few introductory lines about you and your party. We'll include this in a list to circulate to other guests so that faces and names are easier to put together as fellow party goers meet over the course of our time together. Beware, opting out means we get to fill in the blanks for you. J

 We need this info asap so we can =onfirm rooms at the hotel, and release rooms that will not be =sed.

Well, that should about cover it for the moment. =nbsp; Hope to hear back from you as soon as you can =anage. Most urgent questions are about travel times and =oom bookings so please try to get back to us with that info =ooner rather than later.

We look forward to =eeing and celebrating with you in January! =nbsp;
