Biographies of Our Speakers:

Sharminossavar-Rahmani, CFA

Sharmin is chief investment officer of the Private Wealth Management Group (PWM). She is responsible for overall strategic asset allocation and tactical investment strategy within PWM. She joined Goldman Sachs as a partner in 1993. Prior to joining the firm, Sharmin worked at Fidelity Management Trust Company, where she was chief investment officer for all separate and co-mingled fixed income accounts. Sharmin is a member of the Board of Trustees and the Investment Committee of New York-Presbyterian Hospital and Harvard's Committee on University Resources. She is also vice president of the Board of Trustees, chair of the Investment Committee and member of the Audit and Finance Committee of Trinity School. Sharmin has published two books, one on bond indexing and one on OPEC natural gas, as well as numerous articles on portfolio management issues. Sharmin earned a BA from Princeton University and an MS from Stanford University.

Nicholas Burns

Nick is Professor of the Practice of Diplomacy and International Politics at the Harvard Kennedy School. He formerly served as Under Secretary of State for Political Affairs (2005-2008), U.S. Ambassador to NATO (2001-2005) and to Greece (1997-2001), and State Department Spokesman for Secretaries of State Madeleine Albright and Warren Christopher (1995-1997). He is also director of the Aspen Strategy Group, a member of the Council on Foreign Relations, and a member of several Boards of Directors.

Evan Medeiros

Evan leads Eurasia Group's research on Asia. In June 2015, he stepped down from the position of special assistant to the president and senior director for Asian affairs at the White House's National Security Council (NSC). In that role, Evan served as President Barack Obama's top advisor on the Asia-Pacific and was responsible for coordinating US policy toward the Asia-Pacific across the areas of diplomacy, defense policy, economic policy and intelligence affairs. From 2007 to 2008 Evan served as policy advisor to the special envoy for China and the US-China Strategic Economic Dialogue at the Treasury Department while working at the RAND Corporation from 2002 to 2009.
