Create a Workspace Ripe with Creativity

A customer wrote to us the other day for help with an appealing problem. She had stumbled upon a fabulous vintage desk at her local flea market but after bringing it home, wasn't sure how to integrate it into her space. "It just looks so stark," she said. "How do I make this work?"

"I never design a building before I've seen the site and met the people who will be using it."

- Frank Lloyd Wright

We proceeded to show her how adding a few stylish accents can soften the look and create an inviting and productive space. Start with a few desktop items with the same vintage (or vintage-inspired) feel. In this case, we opted for a vintage typewriter and a retro-style clock. Then add a few subtle pops of color, like a cheerful succulent planter, or an adjacent bookshelf. Complete the look with a modern chair, and you'll have a space that exudes lived-in charm. Go ahead and try this in your own office, and watch the creativity soar.
