RE: The Black Collection
Fine Arts Insurance

Dear Leon:

Enclosed please find primary and excess insurance company documents in connection with the May 8, 2013 renewal of your collection/fine arts program. Also attached are invoices representing the annual premiums which total $724,250 plus $5,235 for the taxes and fees on Lloyds business.

Due to market conditions and recent catastrophic losses, there was an increase in premium of approximately $24,000 over last year. Fortunately, we have kept the increase to a minimum. The past several years, the rates remained unchanged with no premium increases.

Insurance is provided against the usual "all risks" terms and conditions with the territorial limits anywhere in the world*. The basis of valuation in the event of a claim is your inventory/appraisal amounts or current market value at the time of loss whichever the higher. The total amount of insurance is $1,600,000,000 which covers the exposure at 760 Park Avenue, New York. If you recall, we increased the limit last year by $250,000,000 (previously $1,350,000,000). I attach herewith a synopsis of the placement.

Kindly review the Named Insureds and advise if they are correct. Also, Bank of America, N.A. is listed as a loss payee. Copies of the primary and several excess renewal endorsements/policies have been previously forwarded to the Bank per the attached.

I trust all will be found in order and look forward to discussing this matter with you.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey A. Haber

*There is a maximum of $300,000,000 worldwide coverage which includes transits and that part of the collection located at your homes in Bedford and Southampton, New York and elsewhere.
