Je=frey,

We=are delivering two large projects right around the same time of January =2th.

I =ould love to be able to accommodate your time frame but it would be =mpossible.

I =ay be able to handle the table lids & air gaspers, but my man power =s at 100% capacity and we are working 6 days a =eek.

At=this point, even modifying the air gaspers would be a push, but I know =t's something that bothers you on every flight so I would do it =or you regardless of how it will affect my current =apacity.

I =m sorry.
