No= I am not asking you to accept a boat stereo and I remain steadfast in =y desire to make you happy.

We=presented options for a more robust system that required additional =ower from the aircraft and required a $20k plus converter. This =ystem was about $115k.

Wh=n you presented car audio into the equation, we designed a system that =ould sound great and perform efficiently given the aircraft and =inancial parameters.

At=this point in our relationship I consider you a friend and since the =oal at hand is to try and make you happy, I humbly suggest that we work =ogether on a solution rather than texting flippant remarks that do not =rovide any measureable insight to the sound quality that you are really =fter.

In=order to move forward, I am requesting that you give us some time on =riday when you arrive. We are flexible and can meet you as early =nd as long as you want in order to identify and agree on a direction =hat will make you happy.

Yo=r thoughts...?
