I'm now in Seoul. Shall we aim for a call (skype/google =angout) on October 31st then?

Thank =ou Joi and Heather.

I'm in Washington, D.C. =m not available Nov. 10 or 11, but the other days I am free. Calling =n would probably make the most sense for me if this is just an initial =eeting to outline some ideas for a =onference/summit.

Thanks!
Jerry

Jerry/Pindar/Jeremy,

Which of the =ollowing dates work for you?

October =1
November 10, 11, 18, 20

Jerry, =here are you based? Would you be able to meet at MIT or call in to the =eeting?

Thanks!

Heather

I'd be happy to swing by MIT soon, most likely before or after November 24th and 25th =I'll be in Ontario for a Global Commission on Internet Governance <<https://www.ourinternet.org/>> meeting =nd am happy to pop down should schedules permit). These are tentative =ates that will be firmed up next week when the Commission meets in =eoul.

Depending on the size of the eventual event, it =ould be my pleasure to organise a meeting in Hong Kong, perhaps at the =ong Kong University of Science and Technology in Sai Kung (that also =as a convenient but much smaller in-town=venue, just next to HSBC and the Hong Kong Club). Anyway, just =ossibilities at this point. =br> p.

Cheers,

Super. I'm thinking of a two step process. Step =ne to have a small meeting at MIT sometime relatively soon and then a =igger meeting in Hong Kong to talk about the future governance stuff =round bitcoin and crypto currencies. I'm coordinating a bit with the =3C payments working group that's getting set up. We should meet and =iscuss.

Adding Pindar who will also help with this.

Heather, can you help set up a meeting?

Coin Center =ould love to partner with you on such an effort. Would you have some =ime over the next month to have a call to discuss it? Thanks for your =ime.
