Hello Jeffrey, sorry that didnt write you an email, but I hope you got my message. Thank you for m. I really appreciate that. The sad thing that in our country even having money youll have troubles, because visa regimes were strict themselves and became even more. so I was consultating with different people, and they helped me to make a lot of documents, bank statement for 8 ks, papers from my work, my salary, my health, my family etc. All is done, and its interesting how they told me even not to try to appeal for France. Because nobody in ▇▇▇▇▇▇ doesnt have money and buy a tour alone and fly away at 19 years old not having her/his study. stupid, but the truth. I found one good way, Iam on my way to receive invitation from my relative from Greece, he already did all that stuff and sent it by DHL. I will go to Greece, they give visas without troubles, and then I can fly from Greece to Paris next day because its all Shengen zone. I hope it works, at least it is much better than the thing with French embassy. But then I started worrying what if you will not be in Paris at those times? They said I will get to Paris at the end of Agust/first dates of September, will you be there?
otherwise whats the reason.
Im ok, Im reading the book you gave me and trully its a bit difficult for me as of language but I try. And also I started to beleive that one day I will fly away from here to another life and live it. I hope Im not mistaken, fingers croxxed. I know it is near the boundary of a dream but still, dreams come true. if not we will make them cum (*come) (Jeffrey!!!) I gained my new 3 kilos and I look muuuuuch better, my ass is like a boy's tho, but its definetely a handsome one's.
I missed you all, say hello to girls,
(my girls, not those who is ???)

Take care,

G
(sorry for all mistakes, I was in rush).
