THE LIONS REPRESENT 'GRAND TOUR SOUVENIR' WORKS OF ART AND =OULD HAVE BEEN COMMISSIONED TO DECORATE THE GROUNDS OF AN HISTORICAL HOUSE=/strong>

The original figures were commissioned by 'Ferdinando I de=E2◆◆=Medici' and were excuted by Giovanni di Scherano Fancelli=in c.1598, and accompanied by a mirror-image version by contemporary sculp=or Flaminio Vacca (1538-1605).

The original pair remained in Rome until 1789, before being mo=ed to Loggia dei Lanzi in Florence, where they can still be seen today. Th= two sculptures were hugely influential in eighteenth-century Europe: copi=s and versions can be found from landscape gardens to mantlepieces

These figures are museum quality.

The lots are currently located in Barnwell Manor, Barnwell, near Oundle, Peterborough, PE8 5PJ.

They are the finest examples of 19th Century 'Grand Tour Souvenir' works of art of 16th Century sculpture outside of a museum.

Should you require more details please do not hesitate to contact me.
