Attached is the inspection report for 137 Duane Street.

It was performed for a different apartment for one that just closed (4D closed last week for $3.6/m and is listed at 3,198 sq ft, which would be a closing price of $1,125.7=/sqft. This unit is going through a full gut renovation). The unit was in estate condition.<=p>

Although it would be great that your people check in details, at least something to start with (they can focus on some deficiencies).

The developer is desperate to close soon – and he needs all cash deal as it is unlikely that any bank would come in.
