Subject: Your invitation to the Wolfram Technology Conference

Join Wolfram developers and industry experts to explore what Wolfram technologies are making possible at the 2014 Wolfram Technology Conference. It will be held October 22-24 at the Hilton Garden Inn in our home city of Champaign, Illinois.

Secure your spot now at a discounted rate. This event will sell out:

What to expect:

- Interact with the creators of Wolfram technologies. Hear directly from developers about recent advancements that will save you time, money, and effort.
- Participate in intensive pre-conference training and hands-on instruction for implementing these new capabilities in your organization.
- Talk shop with people who get it. Connect with your colleagues and Wolfram staff in topic-based meetups, networking events, and roundtable discussions.

A sampling of topics covered:

- Cloud development
- Computational finance
- Connected devices
- Data science
- Educational technology
- Interactive media
- Social media analysis
- System modeling and simulation
- Visualization

We hope to see you in October for an unforgettable event.

Sincerely,

The Wolfram Technology Conference Team
